SCHEDULE B INSIDER TRADING- CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DESIGNATED PERSONS

This Code of Conduct has been approved in compliance to the Regulation 9(1) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 w.e.f. 24th April, 2019 by adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B of the Regulations in order to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons towards achieving compliance with the Regulations.

1. APPLICABILITY OF THIS CODE

This Code is applicable to the designated persons as may be specified by the Board of Directors and their immediate relatives.

2. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

Mr. Jagdish Chandra, Company Secretary of the Company shall be Compliance Officer for the purpose of administering the code of conduct and other requirements under these regulations. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company once in a year.

3. DETERMINATION OF DESIGNATED PERSONS

The Board of Directors of the Company shall determine the list of designated persons on the basis of their role and function in the organization and the access that such role and function would provide to unpublished price sensitive information in addition to seniority and professional designation, who shall be covered by this code.

4. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DESIGNATED PERSONS

All designated persons shall be governed by this code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

To prevent the misuse of confidential information, The Company has laid down Chinese Walls Procedures as follows, which separate those areas of the Company that routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those which deal with sale / marketing / investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

- a) The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information(UPSI) to anyone in public area;
- b) The Company shall have process of maintaining securely, computer files containing confidential information and physical storage of documents relating to UPSI;
- c) All the UPSI is to be handled on "need to know basis", i.e., UPSI should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. All the non- public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

5. Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with SEBI Insider Trading Regulations 2015 as amended from time to time. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such UPSI relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.
6. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available. (Annexure-1)
7. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to preclearance by the compliance officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs 10,00,000/(Rupees Ten Lakh only) in one transaction or series of transactions in one quarter as stipulated by the board of directors of the Company. The Board of directors may review the limit of preclearance. All such persons buy or sell securities and if the value of the securities likely to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakh Only), should obtain pre-dealing approval from Compliance officer and for this purpose submit application for pre-dealing approval together with an undertaking as per Annexure-2, 2A and 2B.
8. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
9. The Pre-cleared trades have to be executed by the designated person within seven trading days, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
10. The designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade, within a period of six months from execution of preclearance trade. The compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
11. Any contravention of this code of conduct and violation of provisions of Insider trading regulations by designated person may lead to actions i.e. the sanctions and disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback etc., that may be imposed, by the Company on designated persons as per determination by the Board of Directors of the Company and its empowered committee in this regard.

12. Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) immediate relatives
- b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.]
